The hidden secret of the tfbb server

Discussion

Recently I've came across some information that the discord server has nsfw channels the owner epix made certain roles these roles including [REDACTED] and other stuff I left the server prior so I don't know the rest but there's an announcement in the discord server showing these roles he says (only mods know what they mean)

Recently I've came across some information that the discord server has nsfw channels the owner epix made certain roles these roles including [REDACTED] and other stuff I left the server prior so I don't know the rest but there's an announcement in the discord server showing these roles he says (only mods know what they mean)

These roles give access to hidden channels in which there is CP that's right epix the owner allows children to share explicit pictures of themselves! I do not know how many images there are but any person with a secret role in the discord server can access AND POST In these nsfw channels.

I've provided screenshots of this 16 year old, someone has told me that a user as LITTLE as 14 has these roles, epix is a prer a creep and a cp distributor

I've been banned from the reddit and the mods have deleted my account the owner of the server stated in the femboy pic channel that adult bulges are not okay but child bulges are EpicLuminous before this was exposed was an administrator for our group unknown Technologies their affiliation and employment has been terminated.

Along with these sets of allegations we internally conducted an investigation of our own and found that they are equally guilty as the original allegations say.

After we suspended them for pending investigation they responded with this message:

I was given ownership permissions of a teenfemboy reddit discord server, I managed that server for a while and it was going well. I had a few members in the community that implied that they were very... naughty so I did at the time what seemed like a logical move.. I catered to them and created a SEPERATE AND PRIVATE channel just for them to be hormonal and naughty in, It was for like a max of 4-5 people with 2 mods (one couldnt even access it) I trusted both the mods so that wasn't the issue. I was already targeted before this but now I am labeled as a cp ring trafficer or whatever they call me now, the channel was leaked by someone by the name of Alexiball. They somehow gained access to the PRIVATE channel that ONLY people with a specific role could access and see, so that way a regular joe shmoe couldn't just save pictures or use any of it for blackmail and I WARNED them about it.

I simply did not coerce, force, persuade, tell. ANYONE to post anything. This was blown out of proportion by those who wish to see me get locked away, even if my life is just beginning. If you'll want to hear why Alexi even did this in the first place because I know why they did. outside of stirring up shit on me that tbh this is just discord broski, this is how its been. That channel wasn't for the public to see or know about. It WAS MADE SPECIFICALLY for these few peoples and that's it.

I have to be 100% I don't expect forgiveness and I don't expect you to understand-
I've already suffered several major panic attacks and I've dealt with the social repercussions already.

I keep y'all separate from this because it doesn't affect anything I do here, I was debating on telling you yesterday whenever BWRF killed me. But I was 100% certain it would've been a negative reaction so I just didn't but now I'm forced to address this to you

If anyone told you anything else it's exaggerated
I'm telling you how it is and how it was from my point of view

Thanks for the response

And for the record I will not be making this decision alone and may take a while.

The decision will be conducted with select staff members opinions and our affiliates best interest.

Get back to me with a decision whenever it happens- I'll clarify anything that's needed too so don't hesitate to ask anything

We also asked them a few questions about this case and they basically admitted everything:

Were the users sending and receiving explicit images of themselves or of others?

 EpicLuminous  SHD Yesterday at 10:00 PM
They sent their own pictures on their own volition yeah (some of it was from porn sites or just gifs, not all of it was sexual as the chat there was everything to be fair)

 VexTheProtogen  PROTO 2:45 PM
What's the average age of a member in that text channel

 EpicLuminous  SHD 2:50 PM
It was 16 (which is the age of consent in my state) not sure about the others states tho (edited)

They said all the users were over the age of consent (16) but that law does not apply when creating pornography or creating explicit images of a person(s) . According to US and Canadian law you have to be over the age of 18 to create pornography.

They admitted that they facilitated a channel for minors (<18) Users to share inappropriate images of themselves

This is completely unacceptable and illegal therefore their employment with us has been terminated and if you have any affiliation with them we recommend you cut ties immediately.

Proof that the messages aren't forged:

Update about the situation: My partner got hold of the server and now we're trying to clean it off.

Though I still would not recommend you to interact with anything TFBB related, specifically things that the creator of the subreddit (Devy) made.

If anyone says these ss are alledged I have audit logs proof.

That is all.

Also my partner got hold of the server months ago because Devy doesn't know how to moderate so yah

If you're gonna blame my partner how they could've done something they were dealing with some mental stuff

So please don't report the server but report the perpetrator (Devy in this case) instead.

Thanks

PointlessPainting · 10d

I'm a mod for this subreddit (oddly enough), never interacted with the owner nor the discord server since well I'm just helping my partner out (Another moderator) to moderate the sub

It's so sad to see this happening in close doors. I kinda hated Devy's guts after seeing someone venting then Devy making fun of them

I announced that you shouldn't vent in the server btw, and they decided to do it anyway so yk that's on them..

PointlessPainting · 10d

true but devy putting it on a hall of shame feels unforgiving

Yk I'm Devy right- I literally refuted your statement as it was factually incorrect try to share this on other sub that way more people can be aware

u/otherredditor • 12 days ago removed

I believe the cool lembay channel thing from my own speculation is a way for boys to live down themselves

u/otherredditor • 12 days ago removed

Oh that's even worse

Another subreddit channel called r/teenfemboy (which has a no NSFW rule) also denounced the r/teenfemboybutbetter which Epix was running.

WE ARE NOT ASSOCIATED WITH r/teenfemboybutbetter

• Announcement

We have no connection to this subreddit, and do not share any of the same mods. We do not have any power over what that subreddit chooses to do.

Does anyone mind informing me on what happened? I'm a curious cat! :3

According to what some people said, the owner of TFBB was found to have a set of private channels in his discord servers where minors posted lewd pictures of themselves for others to see, and TFBB seems to have been privated after this came out.
